Jávea (Javea)

In one of the most fascinating natural spots on the coast of Jávea is this cosy house that combines traditional Mediterranean aesthetics that blends in with the surroundings and the spacious rooms and fireplaces in the bedrooms, more typical of the American style. The beautiful terrace adorned with balustrade and wooden beams, so typical of the area, is undoubtedly the main feature, together with the large kitchen and the barbecue area. The sunny location of this unique home allows you to enjoy the almost three hundred days of sunshine a year and all the activities outside the house such as delicious breakfasts on the terrace, lively shared celebrations, refreshing days by the pool, a glass of wine enjoying the sunset or simply relaxing on a sun lounger or with a good book. The tranquillity of this wonderful residential area and the close proximity to one of the most paradisiacal and highly rated beaches in Spain are just some of the advantages that can be enjoyed by living in this beautiful house.
