(Denia)

An ideal example of a period town house on a pedestrian street in the old town of Denia, in an emblematic setting in the centre of Denia, just a few metres from the castle, restaurants, shopping and all the charms of this coastal town are accessible by foot. This 386m² home also offers a private garden of over 213m². This in essence is peace and offers tranquility in the middle of the town. The home offers high ceilings, large open spaces and also the currently small kitchen can be changed, as the rear of the courtyard can be converted to a huge kitchen. For its historical and cultural value, its presence demonstrates the historical mark left by the ancestors who lived in this town. Distributed on two floors with spacious rooms, it has a surface area of 386m² and 213 m² of garden. Do not hesitate to contact Found Valencia for our bespoke renovation and construction services or for more information on this unique property.
