

	4		3		205m ²		0m ²
--	---	---	---	---	-------------------	---	-----------------

Found Valencia presents this magnificent property with spectacular views of the old Turia riverbed. □ □ Located on Avenida de Aragon, the house has been completely renovated on 2020. □ □ The house has 205 sq. meters, with one parking spaces and a storage room in the same building. The four bedrooms, all of them exterior and with unobstructed views, are spacious and bright. Accessing the house, we enter the living-dining room area, bright, large, and with endless views of the grove of the gardens of the Turia. The dining area, gives access to a small terrace, large enough to enjoy it with the family. In addition, the designer kitchen, completely renovated, has a separate gallery. Two bathrooms, one of them ensuite, and a guest toilet. The master bedroom has a dressing room area and another large and independent terrace. □ □ The feeling of spaciousness and brightness that the house has is incredible. The renovation has been done with great taste. With fitted closets in all rooms, parquet floors, air conditioning / heating ducts, natural gas radiators throughout the house, white lacquered doors, taking care to detail, even adding mosquito nets to the windows. In addition, the building has a concierge. □ □ □ The area of Aragon Avenue, is one of the best in Valencia, is a very wide avenue, with lots of light, and with stretches of landscaped area in its interior. Its location is fantastic, spacious, and very close to the center. The sea is about five minutes away by car, and the accesses to enter or leave Valencia, either from the north or the south, are also close. In the middle of the avenue we find the Aragon metro station, ideal for getting around the city. □ □ □

Ref: FV8853

915,000 €(Valencia City)

