

Situated on a flat and spacious plot of 1,350 m², this charming villa offers the perfect combination of comfort, functionality and Mediterranean charm. Upon entering, the spacious entrance hall leads you to a bright living room with fireplace that overlooks the garden and terrace. Ideal for cosy moments with family and friends. On this floor you will also find the well-equipped kitchen as well as two double bedrooms and a completely renovated bathroom. Upstairs is the master suite, which occupies the entire floor, with its own bathroom and access to a private terrace with panoramic views. Downstairs, there is an additional guest house with its own bathroom and extra space that can be used for storage, gym, or adapted as required. Outside, you will find a beautifully landscaped garden with lush vegetation and palm trees, creating a serene Mediterranean atmosphere. Enjoy the warm climate by the private pool or welcome guests in the fully equipped summer kitchen with outdoor dining area. The villa also has new solar panels that contribute to energy efficiency and sustainability. This property combines a sophisticated interior with excellent outdoor facilities, making it the ideal choice as a permanent home or holiday home.
